

Autumn Camping Weekend!

October 6th, 7th, and 8th

Experience the beautiful Autumn season at O'Bannon Woods State Park!

Fun for the whole family: Campfire Program, Live Raptor and Snake Program, Living Farmstead, Haypress Demo, Pumpkin Carving and much more!!

Friday, October 6th @

Saturday, October 7th @

6 pm-8 pm "Welcome" Hot apple cider and cookies at Pine Pond Shelter

10 am-3 pm Living Pioneer Farmstead with tomahawk throwing, spinning wheels, blacksmithing and much more.

11:30 am "The Great Pumpkin Carving Contest" - $3.00 charge for pumpkin, with carving tools provided or bring your own.

1 pm-1:30 pm "1850 Haypress Demonstration", the last one of the season!

2 pm- 3 pm. "Birds of Prey"- see Indiana's native creatures up close and personal.

4 pm-4:30 pm "Autumn Colors T-Shirts" –bring your own shirt for this decorative craft.

6:30 pm- 8 pm "Old Fashion Campfire and Story Telling"- at Sassafras Shelter, bring marshmallows and hotdogs and a good imagination!

Sunday, October 8th @

11am "The Great Pumpkin Hunt"- This family oriented scavenger hunt will race you around the park, get you a little messy, and make you work as a team. Fun for all! Prizes will be given after this adventure!

2pm "SSSSlithering SSSSnakes Alive"- see some of our reptiles up close.

For more information, stop by the nature center or call 812-738-8234.

Come join the fun!!! Regular gate admission applies.